

NACE*Nicaragua Advances in Christian Education*A Message from the NACE board

The N.A.C.E. board of directors would like to let you know of some changes. Colegio Cristiano Manto de Gracia is continuing to thrive and do well in Nicaragua. This year marks the school's 15th year in existence and this December will be the school's 6th high school graduating class.

Bob and Barbara Kelly, who have been an integral part in the formation of the school in Nicaragua have decided it is time to begin the transition of spending more time back in the States. This is partly due to several factors including health, age, and the desire to spend more time with their kids and grandkids.

They will continue to monitor and oversee certain aspects of the school from the States. We wanted to let you, our supporters, know of this transition and that the ministry and school in Nicaragua will continue with the Kelly's full support. Bob and Barbara have chosen McKinney, Texas as their home base but will continue to make regular trips to Nicaragua and will continue to teach Bible classes remotely. The Kelly's have done a wonderful job in making sure that the school will continue to run seamlessly in their periodic absences. For the past 15 years, Rodiver Amador and his wife Maura have done a wonderful job as principal and assistant principal of the school, and they will continue to oversee the school while the Kellys are in the States.

Your support is still greatly needed, and the expenses remain the same. We cannot thank you enough for all your prayers and support and look forward to your continued support.

As you are probably aware, the Kellys sold everything when they moved to Nicaragua. So, the board of NACE would love to bless them with a love offering to help cover the cost of purchasing some needed home furnishings and also to help with additional costs that they did not have when they lived in Nicaragua. We are not going to use any funds that have been previously donated for the running of the school. However, if you would like to bless the Kelly's with a love offering, you can do so on the NACE website and write "love offering" in the notes line. Your gift will be tax deductible, and we will make sure they receive this love offering.

Thank you for your continued support,

N.A.C.E. Board of Directors
